

Mark your Calendar!
Commemorating Yom Hashoah, Holocaust Remembrance Day.
The True Story of an Unknown Hero of the Holocaust.
Monday, April 8th, 2013 at 7:00 pm

HOWARD HERSKOWITZ PRESENTS
AARON'S JOURNEY
FROM SLAVE TO MASTER

You'll be Captivated by this Multi-Media Presentation!

"Why did so few of the 6 Million Jews ever resist? The answer calls to mind an unknown Hero of the Holocaust who DID fight back."

Join Howard Herskowitz, author of "Aaron's Journey From Slave to Master," as he tells the amazing story of his 5'2" father, Aaron Herskowitz, a slave to the Hungarian Nazis who escaped, became a bounty hunter and captured hundreds of Nazi officers and spies, outwitted or outlucked death many times, and even was appointed by the Russians as overlord of a conquered enemy town.

In this dramatic presentation (including compelling video footage of Aaron telling the story in his own words), Howard will share the heroism, the adventure, and the astonishing love story of Aaron's war years. Howard will make this true story come alive for you as you get to know this remarkable hero of the recent past.

The book has been endorsed by the late Congressman Tom Lantos (the only Holocaust survivor to serve in US Congress), military historian Col. David Glantz, Jewish Book World, and many others (get the details at www.aaronsjourney.com).

Books on sale for $20.00 each.
Have Howard autograph your personal copy.

For further information, contact:
Amy Szoke at
The Palm Beach Synagogue
(561) 838-9002 Ext. 4

A Love that Beat
the Odds

Aaron also survived by drawing on the memory of the woman he loved — and managed, against all odds, to find her again years later, each believing the other had perished.

Please visit:
www.aaronsjourney.com
or call us at 954-764-8005 to learn more about Aaron's incredible story.

"I look forward to meeting you on April 8th."
-- Howard Herskowitz, Author.

Please join us for this unforgettable presentation at:
Palm Beach Synagogue

120 North County Road
Palm Beach, FL 33480
Contact : Amy Szoke
(561) 838-9002 Ext. 4

Free Admission
Complimentary coffee and beverages will be served