

Mark Your Calendar! The True Story of an Unknown Hero of the Holocaust Tuesday, March 12th, 2013 at 8:00 pm

You'll be Captivated by this Multi-Media Presentation!

"Why didn't most of the 6 Million Jews who perished ever resist? The answer calls to mind an unknown Hero of the Holocaust who DID fight back."

Join Howard Herskowitz, author of "Aaron's Journey From Slave to Master," as he tells the amazing story of his 5'2" father, Aaron Herskowitz, a slave to the Hungarian Nazis who escaped, became a bounty hunter and captured hundreds of Nazi officers and spies, outwitted or outlucked death many times, and even was appointed by the Russians as overlord of a conquered enemy town.

In this dramatic presentation (including compelling video footage of Aaron telling the story in his own words), Howard will share the heroism, the adventure, and the astonishing love story of Aaron's war years. Howard will make this true story come alive for you as you get to know this remarkable hero of the recent past.

The book has been endorsed by the late Congressman Tom Lantos (the only Holocaust survivor to serve in US Congress), military historian Col. David Glantz, Jewish Book World, and many others (get the details at www.aaronsjourney.com).

Books on sale $20.00, have Howard autograph your personal copy.

A Love that Beat the Odds

Aaron also survived by drawing on the memory of the woman he loved — and managed, against all odds, to find her again years later, each believing the other had perished.
